

Research & Technology Showcase in Albuquerque on September 12

September 1, 2012

Businesses interested in learning more about working with Sandia National Laboratories through licensing, partnerships, procurement, and economic development are encouraged to attend its Research & Technology Showcase in Albuquerque on Wednesday, September 12.

The event will include highlights of research and development at the Lab, an overview of its economic development programs, examples of corporate applications, along with time for poster sessions and networking. While the showcase is free and open to the public, online registration is required. Lunch is limited to the first 200 registrants.

To learn more about the event, go to <http://www.sstp.org/showcase>.

If this is already a “must do” for you, go to <http://www.sstp.org/showcase/register> to register.

Sponsors for the event include Sandia National Laboratories, Bernalillo County, the City of Albuquerque, Sandia Science & Technology Park, and Technology Ventures Corporation.
